

Please join the Sewall-Belmont HOUSE & MUSEUM

for the opening reception of

“Project 3: Empowered by Artistry”

The Sewall-Belmont House & Museum is proud to welcome a new collaboration of arts organizations dedicated to social justice issues, making a difference, both locally and globally, through individual creativity and fine arts.

The exhibit features work from artists across the globe expressing the strength and power of women.

Neermala Luckeenaran Mauritius “The Sorrows of Women”

June 18th, 2008 6:30-8:30PM

at the Sewall-Belmont House & Museum
144 Constitution Ave., NE
(next to the Hart Senate Office Building)
Washington, DC 20002

RSVP, in the positive only, to rsvp@sewallbelmont.org or 202-546-1210 x23.

Selected artwork will be for sale throughout the exhibition.

Produced in conjunction with:

Arts for Global Development

Authentic Art Consulting & The ThickArt Collaborative

Girls Gotta Run Foundation

Can't make it to the opening reception?

The exhibit is available for viewing on Saturday between 11-4PM from June 14th through August 30th.

The Sewall-Belmont House & Museum celebrates women's progress toward equality—and explores the evolving role of women and their contributions to society—through educational programs, tours, exhibits, research and publications.

www.sewallbelmont.org